

Invest your capital in a place of the future

European-Turkish real estate company Kenanoğlu Kardeşler

Alanya is in all respects an attractive and worth living-in city for people of all ages. There is fabulous nature and landscape but also entertainment and amusements as well as sports. Last but not least there is a many kilometres long beach in the most beautiful surrounding, inviting you for a stroll.

For many Britons, Dutchmen and Germans the Alanya area became a second homeland. Also people from Scandinavia, Belgium, Ireland and other countries have propriety there. Moreover, an estimated amount of 20.000 Western Europeans made the warm region by Alanya to their main place of residence. You too invest in the Alanya region. A purchase of a real estate as a vacation residence, main residence or also as retirement home is an investment in the future. The prizes of the real estates and the parcels allow expecting betterment. Right now the houses and apartments can be purchased at low prices compared with European level. The betterment has moved in the past years within the scope of up to 30%. Compared with vacation residences in comparable places like Spain, Italy or Greece the prices in Turkey are only a fractional amount of their value. The Turkish Riviera with Alanya emerges as the "coming Mallorca", metaphorically speaking in regard to enhancement in value of real estates and belongs to the "most wanted" for those who love the sun.

The general infrastructure, upgrading of the roads and the possibilities of spending free time are close to the above mentioned, until now classical tourists' destinations at the Mediterranean Sea.

Constructing and selling of luxurious mansions and apartments with exalted style

Especially in Alanya the administration department and the mayor pay a lot of attention to creating an exquisite appearance of the city and the region. See for yourself. Even now Alanya city and harbour are sometimes associated with Nice or St. Tropez in the south of France. The Alanya region is becoming a more and more popular vacation region for Europeans. And what is more: it is still affordable. Use this unique chance, as long as the prices are still favourable. Use this unique occasion, as long as the prices are low. Make you dream about your own house at the Mediterranean Sea come true. Your offspring will be grateful for this.

The Turkish economy is catching up. This country is politically very strong with its democracy. The currency "Turkish lira YTL" has stabilized. The inflation rate went down to about 10%. The Euro became accepted in business and it is a most welcomed stable currency.

Turkey is a EU pre-accession country. Turkey is a member of the EU custom union. It is an associated member of the European Union. Turkey also belongs to founder members of NATO with many NATO airports and bases.

European-Turkish real estate company Kenanoğlu Kardeşler